

CITES SUCCESS OF CITY EMPLOYMENT BUREAU

CITY EMPLOYEES AND OFFICIALS AID FAMILIES

Many Muncie families received Christmas cheer of baskets of food, needed clothing and presents for the youngsters from the city officials and employees.

Fifteen men received temporary work and were paid from funds donated by the street department staff. The city workers at the city barns for more than a month donated a part of their pay to the fund and from it the fifteen men were employed.

Bill Daniels, street commissioner, had the fifteen men at work for a day on the streets and in the evening all the street department employees and the fifteen additional men were served a dinner at the barns. Good, old style vegetable soup, steaming hot was served the men by Bill to climax the day. And there were other trimmings for the event so that the men had a great time at the affair.

Members of the fire department voted to buy food for needy families from funds they had contributed and the $150 annual gift from the Burt H. Whiteley Charity Fund. A committee from the department spent several hours Wednesday distributing the baskets.

Each year the clearing house of the banks present the police department with $100 and this year the policemen decided to use the money to purchase supplies for needy persons and in addition did a great deal of work among needy persons.

Mrs. Mary Early, the police matron, has been busy several days obtaining and distributing clothing for women and children and many warm wraps and dresses were made possible for the needy women and children by her work. Parcels of clothing are still arriving at the police station and are being given to persons needing them.

Forty baskets were distributed by City Health Commissioner John H. Williams and Billy Greenwalt, the sanitary officer, to families in quarantine or where the quarantine had been recently lifted and the families were in need of food. Both Commissioner Williams and Sanitary Officer Greenwalt delivered the most welcomed baskets until a late hour on Wednesday evening.

This is said to be the first time that the health department of the city extended such generous aid to the families under quarantine or just out from quarantine and Williams and Greenwalt received great satisfaction for their efforts in the happy expressions from the families receiving the supplies.

Other departments and their employees were busy the day before Christmas cooperating with the various agencies and groups active in giving food and supplies to the needy people of the city.

Muncie citizens certainly opened their hearts and purses to make this Christmas especially one of good cheer to every city and until late hour Wednesday evening the various groups and agencies and hundreds of volunteers were distributing the cheer.

THE MAYOR'S CORNER

At last the smelling committee of the city council has got it on the mayor.

The discovery was made the other day that the mayor had purchased a couple of fountain pens and a bottle of ink and charged it to the city.

My heart went flippity flop when I read the horrible story in the one place here where one would expect to read it—in the Muncie Press.

The word has been going around that I am to be keel hauled for something or other right after the first of the year so I suppose the pen and ink graft is the foundation.

The Press said two members of the council supplied it with the information. It seems these statesmen asked the manager of the store where the pens and ink were purchased whether or not the crime has been committed.

The manager told me there were three of them. "They said they were councilmen," said he, "but I didn't know them."

I am confessing publicly that I made the purchases. Fountain pens are a weakness of mine. I have an appropriation for office supplies. It is very small, almost as small as the council that made the appropriation.

I am going to find out if there is anything left in the appropriation. If there is I believe I will buy myself another pen, and may risk being half shot at sunrise by taking a chance on another bottle of ink.

It must have been distressing for the Press to expose the mayor that way. But it just had to be done. When the Press hears about something rotten here its conscience will not allow it to be silent.

Stealing the people's money through gravel contracts has not yet been discovered by the Press.

The selling of broken down trucks belonging to city officials was not worth mentioning.

A half million dollar paving graft scandal was merely a laughable joke and a republican city clerk who went south with everything but the paper on the wall and a republican treasurer of the school board who hauled it home by the wheelbarrow load were merely little jokers who were guilty of taking it and forgetting to put it back. Just misdeemeanors, so to speak.

The Press told us the other day that ex-Convict Governor McCray was entitled to his pardon.

McCray stole something like three million, enough money to buy a thousand cords of fountain pens and enough ink to fill the Atlantic Ocean.

According to the Press McCray didn't mean to steal anything. No sir. The governor was too good hearted for that. He didn't know he was doing wrong, the Press says so, therefore it's so.

I am not claiming immunity for that reason. I went into that pen and ink graft with my eyes wide open. I recognized the enormity of my offense.

And now I have been caught red handed. May 'even 'elp us.

HEALTH FIELD

TO BE GREATEST

Edison Says Biologists and Chemists Replacing Inventors

The outstanding inventions of the future will be in the field of health, and their creators will be biologists and chemists, Thomas A. Edison believes.

America's greatest inventor gave his views in reply to a questionnaire submitted to him by the Review of Reviews magazine.

"Sickness is pretty hard on the workman now," said Edison. "It's hard for them to get a good doctor, and the proper care is expensive. There is too much sickness, too. Something will have to be done about it, and that is where biology and chemistry come in."

Q—"Do inventions come from necessity—the mother of invention"—or from scientific curiosity?"

A—"Most of inventions work to earn money to get a modest living for their families. All they want is enough money to experiment with."

Q—"Will science tell us to eat less, as it has told us to drink less?"

A—"Eighty per cent of our deaths are due to over-eating. After the age of twenty-one a large variety and quantity of food is unnecessary. All those things crowd the stomach and cause poisons. It takes courage to learn restraint, but all that eating is unnecessary. I find that my weight keeps up on a glass of milk alone, every two hours."

Q—"Is there any inherent difficulty in making television as common as the telephone?"

A—"Yes, cost and complexity. Locomotives are pretty well developed, but you wouldn't want to buy one and have it in your house, would you? Television is like that."

Q—"Is it your opinion that propulsion on gas in warfare is efficient and merciful or a horror to be barred?"

A—"I think it less deadly than bullets and bombs."

Q—"Do you think the Auto-Gyro is the coming thing in aviation—the best principle so far developed?"

A—"Yes. And it came from Spain. They say that Spain is dead, but that man (the inventor) has the egg of Columbus."

Kin Hubbard Dies Suddenly Today

Indianapolis, Dec. 26.—Kin Hubbard, humorist and creator of the character "Abe Martin," died suddenly early today.

Death was attributed to heart disease. Mr. Hubbard was born in Bellefontaine, O. He came to this city while a young man and entered newspaper work here.

In 1904 he created the character of "Abe Martin," a mythical personage whose habitat was the hills of Brown County, Ind. "Abe" has been a regular feature of the Indianapolis News since his creation and in recent years he has appeared in the Fort Wayne News-Sentinel and a number of other newspapers throughout the country.

SEEK 5 DAY WEEK

AS JOB SOLUTION

Senator Joe Robinson Stresses Need For Permanent Labor Cure

Little Rock, Ark., Dec. 26.—The five-day week for labor may be the solution to the increasing substitution of machinery for hand labor, United States Senator Joe T. Robinson, Senate Democratic leader, believes.

In a statement on his return home during the holiday recess of Congress, Senator Robinson said yesterday that unemployment "seems to be increasing rather than diminishing" and "the substitution of machinery for hand labor is revolutionizing working conditions and throwing millions out of employment."

Many circumstances involved. "To restore the equilibrium between the labor supply and the demand for laborers, the industries of the United States may find it necessary to resort to the five-day week. Manifestly it is difficult for this to be brought about during an economic crisis like the present."

Sees Gradual Recovery Senator Robinson said establishment of reserves for unemployment has been proposed but this could be made available only after lapse of a considerable period, and "like the five day proposal is of permanent rather than temporary character."

LIEBER ASKING

FOR $1,904,459

Conservation Dept. Has Many Projects in View For Coming Year

Indianapolis, Dec. 26.—(UP)—A budget request for $1,904,459, an increase of 248 per cent over the 1929-1930 appropriation, was asked today by the state conservation department through Director Richard Lieber.

Of this sum, $492,700 would be expended for structural improvements at the various state parks.

Total appropriations for the five divisions of forestry, geology, entomology, lands and waters and engineering were $795,411.04 in 1929-30. The sum of $612,807 for 1931, and $540,492 for 1932, is requested in the new budget.

Receipts for the division of fish and game for the last biennial period were $681,246.09, and the sum of $750,160, to be supplied by receipts, is asked for the next two years.

Plans for this division include the erection of a super-hatchery for fish, but details remain undisclosed.

In submitting the request, the department director asks that monies be allowed unclassified as among the 95 subdivisions of the five divisions.

Structural improvements requested include a $48,500 swimming pool for Turkey Run state park and a vehicle bridge over Newby Gulch to cost $11,400; $42,000 hotel annex and $56,000 swimming pool for Chilly Falls; $35,900 hotel addition for Pokagon; $38,000 additional parking pavement and $102,000 second hotel unit for the Dunes; $40,500 new hotel building; $4,800 summer camp and $9,100 road entrance for McCormick's creek; $4,500 flume and water wheel; $14,600 for restoration of lower residence, and $8,800 for cave development and lighting at Spring Mill; $9,900 bath house; $11,100 for cabins; $4,200 bathhouse, and $3,800 pavilion for Shakamak; $12,100 for cabins and $6,900 pavilion for Brown county; $3,800 pavilion and 3,200 bathhouse for Anderson Mounds.

Twenty thousand dollars is asked for new parks to come into the state system within the next two years.

In commenting on the request, Lieber had the following to say: "This appropriation request has been prepared with conscientious deliberation. It represents only a normal increase of the department activities at a minimum of overhead expense. The construction program, including projects that have been needed for several years, has been pruned to the minimum."

HOLIDAY TOLL IS

HEAVY IN STATE

Tragedy Follows Feasting In Many Homes on Christmas Day

Tragedy, which always stalks the trail of holiday celebrants, took more than a dozen lives in Indiana Christmas day.

The Whiting fire, in which seven men were cremated and an eighth burned probably fatally, while they were drinking on the second floor of a rooming house, led the mortality list.

Murder, suicide, over-eating and exposure were numbered among the death causes.

Joe Schar, 55, a professional beggar of Gary, was found frozen to death in an alley.

A quarrel led to the murder of Gabriel Sandidge, 35, a farmer in the Cannellton district in Perry county, and his brother, Noah, was injured. Monroe Harding, 35, who allegedly had been ordered from the farm, was held on a murder charge.

The hearty Christmas dinner which Mrs. Katie Heffner, 35, of Marion, enjoyed to the utmost, was her last meal. She fell dead as she left the table. Heart disease, which developed during a meal, was blamed for the death of Mrs. Eleanor Rathbun of Redkey. She died during the progress of Christmas dinner.

Despondency caused Mrs. Edna King, 20, to commit suicide by taking poison in Indianapolis. Her mother had died recently.

Brady Pierce, 22-year-old Indianapolis street car motorman, was killed when his car plunged through a bridge railing and fell into the water. It was believed he was asleep at the controls.

Mrs. Tom Mix Gets Divorce From Actor

Los Angeles, Cal., Dec. 26.—Tom Mix, western hero of the films, was divorced for the second time Wednesday.

Extreme mental cruelty was charged by Mrs. Victoria Forde Mix in obtaining the decree.

Mrs. Olive Stokes Mix, who divorced the actor in 1917, likewise had charged cruelty. He married his second wife a year later. Besides her freedom, she won her 9-year-old daughter, Tomasina, and a property settlement. The child will spend half her annual summer vacation with her father.

Report of G. W. Dyke for First Week's Activities Shows Several Hundred Men Received Odd Jobs and Other Work Thru Bureau---15 Men Got Steady Jobs and Temporary Work for Remainder.

Success of the City Free Employment Bureau's work in cooperation with the government's unemployment committee is cited by G. W. Dyke, vice chairman of the committee, in a recent report to the State Executive Council of Unemployed Commission at Indianapolis.

The report covered the first week's activities of the coordinated employment aid program and outlined the splendid work being accomplished for the city's unemployed men.

In the apple selling campaign for the first week 325 men received one day's employment and in the selling of Christmas wreaths 84 men got a day's work and the first three days of the Christmas tree sale 15 men were employed in that work.

Odd jobs were obtained for 203 men and steady employment was obtained for 15 men. From the empty apple boxes fourteen men devoted several days to the making and selling of toys from the wood from the boxes.

Registration of unemployed showed that there were about 1,400 men and women registered, the list including 85 women who were the support of their families.

Vice Chairman Dyke in the report spoke enthusiastically of the fine spirit of cooperation evidenced by the citizens and business and industrial men of Muncie to aid the unfortunate men and women in these trying times. His report covered the early part of December and a later report of the pre-Christmas activities will be submitted soon.

Jap Lineback, director, and Karl Tuttle, assistant director of the City Free Employment Bureau have been in constant cooperation with the government's committee which is headed by E. Arthur Ball. The Ball committee immediately upon the appointment of the personnel of the City Free Employment Bureau coordinated its activities with the bureau and the cooperation has been an important factor in the success of the aid to the unemployed.

RECOVER DEAD

IN EARTHQUAKE

South American Town is Razed by Earth Tremors

Salta, Argentina, Dec. 26.—(UP)—Thirty-six bodies had been recovered from the ruins of the town of La Poma today as rescue parties worked in rain and cold in the debris of the village practically razed by an earthquake.

The injured were estimated at more than 100. The earthquake dead were buried as soon as the bodies were identified. The normal population of the town, isolated in the foothills of the Andes, is about 3,000.

Minor earth tremors, recurrent after the initial major earthquake, had ceased. Reports received here said that wide cracks opened in the ground and engulfed men, women and children. Most of the buildings in La Poma were reported destroyed. The earthquake was felt throughout northern Argentina, but no loss of life or serious property damage was reported from other towns.

Women and children among the survivors slept in huts or in undamaged buildings. The men were quartered in tents. Precautions were taken to strengthen walls and parts of buildings left standing.

Inhabitants of the village, badly frightened by their experience, said that when daylight came after the earthquake, columns of smoke were seen rising from the surrounding hill tops, while subterranean rumblings continued throughout Wednesday morning.

The majority of the victims were killed in their beds, caught by falling walls. Seven entire families were reported killed in their bedrooms.

INTO NEW PARTY

Attack by Lucas Cited as Reason for Severing Connection G. O. P.

New York, Dec. 26.—An invitation to Senator George Norris of Nebraska to "sever forever" his connection with the Republican party and help form a third party was extended yesterday by Dr. John Dewey, chairman of the League for Independent Political Action.

"The recent attack upon you by Robert H. Lucas, executive director of the Republican national committee, clearly shows that you and other insurgent Republicans are not wanted in the G. O. P. by those that control the machine," Dr. Dewey said in his letter.

Seek to Form New Party Dr. Dewey was formerly professor of philosophy at Columbia university. The league he heads seeks to form a new party.

He declared the Republican party stands for "rugged" individualism, while Norris stands for "social planning and social control" and places human rights above prosperity rights.

"These are antagonistic philosophies," he wrote. "The Republican party is a house divided against itself." He added the Democratic party stands for the same principles. A new party formed of liberal group "could win the presidency in 1940, he declared.

Man Stabbed In Restaurant

Evansville, Ind., Dec. 26.—(UP)—No motive was known for the probably fatal knifing of Samuel McGee, 70, at his restaurant here.

McGee was unable to talk when taken to a hospital. His pockets had not been searched, nor had the cash drawer been opened, which led to the belief that robbery was not the motive for the attack.

X-Ray Eyes for Police

When Judge Mann in City Court yesterday held that a search warrant charging a person with carrying concealed weapons was necessary for conviction on such a charge he certainly made it necessary for the police to have X-Ray eyes and then hustle off to the judge and get the searching papers before they could make the pinch for gun toting.

Strange as it may seem, Judge Mann pointed out in the case of Ralph Brees, an old offender, the search revealing the concealed weapon was illegal because of no warrant, consequently the gun toter would be immune unless the police first obtained the search warrant.

With this ruling the gun toters can walk with indifference as far as subsequent conviction is concerned. Brees was arrested by the police on charges of snatching a couple of purses downtown on Wednesday afternoon. He was found by Detectives Brown and Rees in the hall at the Anthony building and when they searched him for the money and pocketbooks and also for their own protection they found the gun.

It's the first rule of police work to find out whether or not the person arrested has a weapon concealed in his pockets or a knife or in the case of cullud gentlemen's the familiar razor. If this precaution was not taken the arrested person could suddenly jerk out a weapon and injure or kill the policemen.

Brees's gun was found while the officers were taking the usual precaution and in addition to being booked on the grand larceny charge the gun toting charge was also filed against him. Judge Mann fined Brees $10 and costs and sentenced him to 90 days in the grand larceny charges, but freed the prisoner on the gun carrying charge.

This decision will likely be hailed with glee among the persons who prey upon their fellowmen and if it takes a search warrant to establish a carrying concealed weapons charge the work of the police will be greatly handicapped. Of course no one expects the police to go up and down the streets patting down people to get gun toting cases, but it seems that criminals and persons with known criminal records who carry guns for the purpose of aiding them in their nefarious work could be dealt with as the case demands.

Judge Mann, however, added the illuminating point that if the police catch the criminal using the gun then a search warrant is not needed. Figure that one out and then send the answer to the editor.

Continue the Good Work

On the front page of this issue appears the first report of the activities of the City Free Employment Bureau and it shows to what extent the bureau in cooperation with the citizens committee has been working to aid the unemployed situation.

Pending before the council and to be acted upon over the mayor's veto is an ordinance to abolish the bureau. Sponsors of the bureau suddenly about a month ago found that it was not to their liking as to the appointees, Jap Lineback, director and Karl Tuttle, assistant director.

Opponents of the present bureau declare that a combination state supervised and directed affair with the state participating in the expense should be established in place of the bureau as now established.

In addition, the state has no funds to aid in paying expenses of the Muncie office and Councilman Tumelson and others making the trip to Indianapolis have been so informed. Other combination state-local offices take all the funds provided for this service by the state legislature.

From the start as evidenced by the report of the first week it can readily be seen that good work is being accomplished by the bureau and it should be continued. Changing the bureau over to a combination state-local affair wouldn't advance the interests of the bureau sufficient to make the change.

The state supervision comes from the state industrial board and there are no state jobs that could be passed around and the industrial board is not organized in any way to stimulate employment or give it special attention.

When Muncie people are out of employment it is a Muncie matter and from the response already received by the bureau it is apparent that the citizens here view the matter in the same light. People living in Muncie usually work here when there is employment and when the slack time comes they usually remain idle until industry here resumes its pace.

Because when work is slack here in Muncie it is slack every place else and it avails a citizen nothing to go from one city to another searching for work that isn't there at all.

Success of the local bureau has been due to the splendid cooperation of the citizens and business men with the officials of the bureau. They had but to call for assistance and it was promptly and enthusiastically met. It was this personal feeling that Muncie should take care of its own unemployed. Under the state-local combination we doubt if this same feeling of cooperation would be evidenced by the community. As far as any interchange benefits are concerned there is little likelihood of any interchange of workers from one city to another.

All cities are of the opinion that their unemployment problem must be solved locally and through local cooperation. Although the state when it has funds offers to pay half the expenses of the bureau, yet it at the same time demands that it appoint the personnel. This is but another evidence of concentration of activities at Indianapolis to the detriment of local government.

With the state assuming the appointing power, it likewise assumes the directing power and removes from the locality any consideration. With this situation the local citizens lose contact with local office and decline to become enthusiastic over a program that is only remotely connected with the local government.

Placing the employment problem under remote control system might result in interchange of workers in prosperous time, but the history of state employment bureaus in prosperous times is that they are practically deserted during times of plenty of work. If there is a job for everyone then the bureau ceases its function.

It is our view that since the state hasn't any money to help it would be useless to effect a new arrangement with the employment bureau and it would be best to continue the one we have as long as it is needed, supported and directed locally and not a part of a state centralization plan.

COACH WON'T TOUT ALABAMA

Fine Spirit, Strong Defense; Get the Breaks Says Wade

Pasadena, Calif., Dec. 26.—(UP)—The Alabama football team may be great but Wallace Wade won't say so.

There are no superlatives in Coach Wade's vocabulary when he is talking about his football team which arrived here late yesterday to meet Washington State in the Tournament of Roses game New Year's day.

"We've done pretty well so far," said Wade, "but we have been very fortunate in getting the breaks. Fine spirit, strong defense, and good blocking probably are our strongest points."

Those words seemed a bit modest when Alabama's formidable record of winning nine straight games and holding the opposition to 12 first downs and two touchdowns is considered, but Coach Wade has no more praise than that for the unbeaten southern champions.

Twice before Wade has brought teams to play in the Rose Bowl and the first was a wholesome respect for Alabama as a result of the Crimson Tide's 20-9 victory over Washington in 1926 and a 7-7 tie with Stanford in 1927.

"I expect Washington State has a better team than any we have beaten," said Wade. "We are going to do our best to win and that's all I have to say."

Although Wade has few words of praise for his team, Tiny Hewitt, former all-American halfback when he played with Pittsburgh and who later played with the Army, has a few bouquets for the Crimson Tide. Hewitt is one of Wade's assistants.

"Sington, the big tackle, and Campbell, quarterback, are two of the best players I have ever seen," said Hewitt. "Sington weighs 215 and is very fast. He leads interference for the backs, opens up holes and is a demon on defense."

"Campbell is fast, swift and always dangerous. He reminds me of Chris Cagle. He blocks and tackles well and is the best back in the south in my estimation."

One of the most striking things about the Alabama teams is the similarity in build of most of the regulars. All of them are broad shouldered and have stocky legs. For instance, Sington and Clement, the two tackles, have the same measurements—215 pounds, and six feet two inches in height.

THREE NAMED BAT LEADERS

New York, Dec. 26.—(UP)—Bill Terry of New York, Chuck Klein of Philadelphia and "Hack" Wilson of Chicago, were the "big three" of National League batsmen last season according to the official average released today.

Terry, in addition to winning the individual batting championship with an average of .401, also made the most hits, 254, and led in singles with 177. Terry's mark tied the National League record made by "Lefty" O'Doul of Philadelphia in 1929.

Klein, like Terry, led in three departments of the game. The slugging Philly scored the most runs, 158, had the most total bases on hits, 445, and hit the most doubles, 59.

Wilson was the home run king, blasting 55 homers, just four less than the all-time intra-league record established by Babe Ruth. Wilson's 56 homers exceeded by 13 the National League mark set by Klein in 1929.

Adam Comorosky of Pittsburgh, led in three base hits, with 23, and had the most sacrifice hits, 33. Hazen "Duke" Cuyler of Chicago, stole 27 bases to lead the league for the third successive year.

Taylor Douthitt of St. Louis, went to bat 644 times to top the league in this angle of the game.

Washington High at Frankfort Tonight

Frankfort, Ind., Dec. 26.—(UP)—The most interesting high school basketball game of the holiday season will be played here tonight between Frankfort and Washington.

Both coaches have produced recent state champions, and tonight's game is expected to point toward the 1931 championship aggregation in Indiana. Washington has been considered the strongest team in the southern half of the state, with Frankfort holding the edge over all teams in the northern half.

Neither team has been defeated this season.

tween Frankfort and Washington.

Both coaches have produced recent state champions, and tonight's game is expected to point toward the 1931 championship aggregation in Indiana. Washington has been considered the strongest team in the southern half of the state, with Frankfort holding the edge over all teams in the northern half.

Neither team has been defeated this season.

Production Art Makes "Morocco" Super Picture

At infrequent intervals the Motion Picture Industry produces a Super-Picture! One achieving the rare combination of Power, Sweep, Artistry and Universal Appeal that marks every BIG production in screen history. Paramount has produced such a picture. It is "Morocco", at the Rivoli theatre Sunday and Monday.

"Morocco" is the story of a turbulent, fierce, all-consuming love; the story of a man and a woman. There is another man in the story, a polished sophisticate.

For these three characters Paramount has picked three outstanding actors. Gary Cooper, happy-go-lucky-soldier of fortune, private in the French Foreign Legion, where every man's past is his own secret. Marlene Dietrich, ravishingly beautiful, the toast of the Continent, playing her first American screen role. And Adolphe Menjou, known and admired by screen fans everywhere.

"Morocco" is an unforgettable love story. Not the inconsequential sentimentality of boy-and-girl courtship. But love that is vital, soul-shaking, real. It is the story of a ruthless, unreasoning, magnificent fervor, dwarfing all other emotions.

Every great production is more than a human drama told in pictures. Back of that drama is an intangible fascination of locale, an amazing realism of setting, a fusing of the forces of nature and of life to lift a picture to greatness.

"Morocco" has those things, its surging romance is portrayed against the sensuous, colorful background of North Africa. In Morocco, a city of weird masonry, twisted uneven streets, veiled women, swaggering Legionnaires; seething with unrest and hate; peopled by a cosmopolitan collection of humans, turbaned tribesmen, smartly tailored officers, richly gowned women, tipsy soldiers, the wealth and seam of the world. Back of it all lies the cruel, relentless, mysterious Sahara, its parched, searing breath all but felt.
